

Midwest Association of Translators and Interpreters

Call for Proposals

MATI's 14th Annual Conference

Monona Terrace, Madison, WI

September 23, 2017

The Midwest Association of Translators and Interpreters is now accepting presentation proposals for their Annual Conference.

We are looking for proposals that provide up-to-date and innovative content, promise to stimulate audience engagement and discussion, and will have a lasting impact on attendees. Presentations should be approximately one hour in length. Each presenter will receive an honorarium from MATI of $100 plus travel expenses.

Proposals must be received by May 15, 2017.

Proposals are invited from all areas of translation and interpreting, including finance, law, government, medicine, literature, science and technology, education and training, terminology, independent contracting, and business management.

Your proposal should include an abstract (summary of presentation content) of up to 200 words and a speaker bio of up to 100 words. It may also be accompanied by a video of a previous presentation.

You do not need to be a MATI member to submit a proposal. If you know someone who would make a great presentation, please encourage them to submit today!

Please submit your proposal via this link: <http://matiata.org/Conference-Proposal>